

BURSARIES IN JEWISH STUDIES (CSIC-UCM)

The project “Jewish Cultures Across Mediterranean Europe” (J-Med), CSIC-UCM, invites applications for up to three-month study and/or research bursaries in the field of Jewish studies at the Spanish National Research Council (CSIC) and at the University Complutense of Madrid (UCM), during the academic year 2022-2023, with a monthly stipend of € 1,056 and the option of an additional travel allowance of € 270.

AIM

The bursaries are addressed to students who have completed their degree after October 1, 2019, or to those who have already started a doctoral school, and wish to continue research and specialization studies with scholars from any of both academic institutions.

The centers eligible for application are the Institute of Languages and Cultures of the Mediterranean and the Near East (Jewish and Islamic Studies Department) of the Center for Human and Social Sciences (CCHS) of the CSIC, as well as the Faculty of Philology (Hebrew and Aramaic Studies Section) of the University Complutense of Madrid.

PROFILE AND REQUIREMENTS FOR CANDIDATES

The bursaries are addressed to university students from Spain (except those previously enrolled at the Center for Human and Social Sciences of the CSIC or at the University Complutense of Madrid), Portugal and other European countries, especially those of the Mediterranean basin.

Eligible candidates must be pre-doctoral students with a degree or master's degree in Jewish studies, Hebrew (or Semitic philology with major in Hebrew), or equivalent studies by country of origin, and other research disciplines with interest in Jewish studies.

The grant period, up to three months, must take place between January 15 and June 30, 2023, being required residence in Madrid during the period awarded, exceptionally permitting absence during short periods duly justified.

The recipients of the grants will participate in the activities organized by the project “Jewish Cultures across Mediterranean Europe” (www.jmed.eu). Those awarded will be responsible for their own travel and housing arrangements, and health insurance.

SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS

Candidates must submit their application, by filling out the form and uploading the required documents, at
